

THE ELKS' BIG OUTING

The Greatest Summer Night's Fete
Wheeling Ever Saw.

THOUSANDS VISIT THE FAIR PARK

And Enjoy a Magnificent Concert and Fine Fireworks Display—Madame
Rolla the Star of an Unique and Memorable Entertainment—Everything Passes off with Harmony and Brilliant Success—More Power to the B. P. O. E.

Last night the B. P. O. Elks capped the climax of their many social successes by giving the largest and most enjoyable outing that herd of antlered good fellows have ever given since the organization. Nearly 6,000 invitations were sent out to the public to join the "best people on earth" in an outdoor fete. That such an evening's enjoyment was appreciated by the public was shown by the acceptance of over 4,000 of the cards sent out.

MADAME ROLLA.

Not the slightest detail of the programme was omitted, and nothing occurred during the evening to mar the pleasure of the guests, or lessen their intense enjoyment. This can be credited to the indefatigable efforts of Chairman C. R. Tracy, of the entertainment committee, who was ably seconded by the entire committee and lodge. Mr. Tracy, Joseph Ward, Morris Jacobs, N. Fiel, W. H. Manning, John A. Howard and A. H. Wiedebusch composed the committee.

About 300 were in the advance guard at 5 o'clock bound for the Park, and from this on every hour the crowds grew larger. At 7 o'clock there were 2,000 people at the railroad office trying to get in the three sections of eleven cars, many being left, who were taken out on the 8 o'clock motor. In all about 3,500 passengers were handled. Hundreds of vehicles also carried guests out.

The main feature of the evening was the concert at the pavilion. Only a small number were able to get on the inside. The others stood around under the pine trees, and they were somewhat disappointed, as the vocalists could not be heard to any advantage.

The programme was as follows:
Overture—"Comely".....Keler Bela
Opera House Band.
Duet—See the Fair Moon.....Campana
Mosses Day and Zulaut.
In Cellar Coo.....D'Alquira
Douglas Gordon.....Lawrence Kellie
Poutpourri.....Robin Hood
Mr. A. D. Adler.
Selection—"Wang".....W. Morse
Opera House Band.
Manola.....Bourgeois
Mr. W. B. Day.
A Still Wie Die Nacht.....Boen
b. My Love Will Come To-day.....DeKoven
Madame Rolla.
Toast.....H. Starr
Mr. Charles Zulaut.
Galop—"Purro".....Th. Tobani
Opera House Band.
Prof. H. M. Schoezy, Accompanist.

The concert is rarely excelled in merit. The central figure, the star, of the brilliant occasion, was Wheeling's prima donna, Madame Rolla, whose magnificent pure soprano voice was never heard to better advantage. At the end of each number she was compelled to respond to an encore, rendering a pleasing ballad, "The Mill," and that old favorite, "The Last Rose of Summer." Since her last appearance a year ago, her voice has grown much richer, fuller and more liquid, especially in the upper notes.

Messrs. Day and Zulaut were also compelled to render encores to satisfy their pleased audience.

At the conclusion of the concert, another was started on top of the mound by the Opera House band. Hither the throngs were drawn by the many attractions offered at that point.

A fine display of fireworks under the skillful direction of E. B. Franzheim, and a colored vocal quartette were the principal cards. Dancing was also started at the pavilion and continued until after midnight. The entire grounds were ablaze with light and gay with Chinese lanterns, and the air was filled with the strains of charming music. All left the scene with regret.

To Camp on Stillwater.
The boys along the creek from Soapstone to Pasco station on the C. & W. road have organized an outing club, the incorporators being Messrs. Dan Crymbar, Carl Pasco, Will Porter, Charlie Seabright and Judson and Charlie Quimby, jr. The first "out" started yesterday morning. The party was well armed and equipped for the descent on the crawfish of the Stillwater, and started at an early hour and proceeded on its way west and down through Egypt and is doubtless ere this encamped near the Great Falls of the Stillwater.

The initials of the club are somewhat of a puzzle, being O. O. S. R. G. C. The two Os are supposed to represent the expected exclamation of the boys after eating heartily of turtle soup, crawfish and buttermilk.

A party of raw recruits from Wheeling are expected to join the club on the 14th inst.

The Riverside Camp.
The Riverside tube workers who are encamped down the river at Wilek's Bottom report having an enjoyable outing. The captain is A. Feth, and among those who are there now are H. Yankey, Ed Oker, J. Keenan, Will Hahne, Fritz Knop, F. Geste, J. Cool. They have entertained a number of friends recently, some of the later ones being August Semler and Albert Karsen, of the South Side.

An Old Time Fire Chief.
Carl Schneider, aged 77, now a resident of Columbus, but years ago chief of the Wheeling fire department under the old volunteer system, is in the city this week on his way home from Gettysburg, Pa. He is full of interesting reminiscences of the old days.

As an after-dinner pill, to strengthen the stomach, assist digestion, and correct any bilious tendencies, Ayer's Pills are considered the best. Being sugar-coated, they are as agreeable as any confection, and may be taken by the most delicate.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and about the City.

DOCKSTADTER'S minstrels opened a three nights' engagement at Pittsburgh last night.

A MARRIAGE license was yesterday issued to Henry Koehn, aged 23, and Leah Lemasters, aged 21, both of Wheeling.

A LARGE and enjoyable picnic was given near McMechen yesterday by the Wesley M. E. Sunday school of the Eighth ward.

YESTERDAY City Clerk Thoner paid off the city street lands. There are about ninety of them, and the sum dispensed was $2,113 05.

ROBERT ANDERSON left yesterday for Brighton Beach and other eastern racing resorts to secure running horses for the coming state fair.

ADA EIKY, the five-year-old daughter of Charles Eiky, died at Elm Grove yesterday morning, and will be buried tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

A CHARTER has been issued to the Benwood Southern railroad, which proposes to build an electric or steam motor railway to Moundsville.

TRIADPHIA lodge I. O. O. F. gave a very enjoyable picnic at Sycamore grove, beyond Elm Grove, yesterday. Many Wheeling members of the order and their friends took part, and Mayer's band furnished the music.

In cleaning out the new city reservoir the other day several good sized fish were found. How they got there is a mystery. It is supposed they got through the strainer when very small and grew there. One German carp weighed eight pounds.

JACOB SYDNEN, the iron merchant, is in receipt of a letter from the J. Painter & Sons Company, of Pittsburgh, complimenting and congratulating the business men of Wheeling on their wise and conservative behavior in the late financial flurry. The conduct of affairs here attracted wide attention.

MEMBERS of the Reymann ball club, of the South Side, claim that they were not fairly treated at Martin's Ferry, and challenge the same nine to play them in Wheeling a week from tomorrow for $5 a side, good grounds guaranteed. If the Martin's Ferry boys are game they may respond through the INTELLIGENCER.

Bingham; the nominee of the convention, Hon. Charles M. Hogg; J. N. Garvin, I. L. Knight, Col. William Welsh, C. H. Perry, J. M. Melroy, Thomas L. Garvin and David Ryder. They leave for Cadiz this morning.

WORLD'S FAIR TOURISTS.

People Coming from and Going to the Big Exhibition.

L. A. Rolf and wife left over the Pan-Handle yesterday.

George Gray and wife were Baltimore & Ohio passengers for the fair yesterday.

Pat McGinley and Tom McLaughlin are taking a vacation at the White City.

Miss Edith Haller, George Kramer and Albert Bauer returned home yesterday.

It has been suggested that it would be appropriate to have Madame Rolla sing at the World's Fair on "West Virginia Day."

Mr. G. D. Green, the popular and efficient commercial agent of the B. & O. railroad, with his wife and son, departed yesterday for a ten days' visit.

Among those who left over the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling yesterday were Dr. Carter List, Mrs. V. M. Shaffer, Albert Deltz, E. C. Post, Charles Kastner, Rudolph Shultz and Adolph Bott.

Col. Robert White, Mrs. W. J. W. Cowden, Miss Zoe McClure, Miss Annie Clarke, D. Green, wife and son, Robert Robertson and sister, Miss Enshelmer, Mrs. Zorn and two daughters, Robert Simpson and Julia Hearne left over the Baltimore & Ohio yesterday afternoon.

Willing to Stay in Heaven.

Robert, the well-known colored porter of Wheat & Hancher's, fell from an Elm Grove train going to the Park last evening, near Mt. Calvary, and was rendered unconscious. Mr. H. C. Franzheim revived him. Just as he came to, Robert asked languidly, "Where am I?"

"In the cemetery," was the reply. "Who are you?"

"I am St. Peter."

"O, lordy," said Robert, "let me stay right here."

He didn't get to, though, but went on to the park.

THE BIG CAMP MEETING

On the Wheeling District Grounds at Moundsville.

ANNUAL SESSION TO OPEN TO-DAY.

Mr. Bodley says the Prospects are Bright for the Grandest Meeting on Record in the History of the Three Score Years the Grounds have been in Use—Rev. Sam Jones will be There, and his Friend and Co-worker Dr. Stuart will Open it.

The Wheeling district camp meeting begins to-day on the old camp grounds near Moundsville, where these Methodist gatherings have been held for more than three score years.

Meeting Mr. James W. Bodley, of Staunton, Va., on the street yesterday an INTELLIGENCER reporter learned that he had arrived on the 7 a. m. train to attend the meeting and complete all the arrangements for the successful conduct of the ten days' session.

Mr. Bodley informed the reporter that the prospects for a large attendance never were better in his experience, and he himself has attended camp meetings for forty-five years.

The railroads will give low rates and run excursion trains.

Rev. George Stuart, a co-worker of Sam Jones in all his meetings, and second only to the Reverend Sam himself, will open the services to-night.

The association has done well in securing the services of Dr. Stuart, who will make the meetings interesting from the beginning. People who hear him once will want to hear him again.

Miss Wray, of New York city, comes well recommended for her earnest endeavors to help on the cause of Christ, and no doubt will add to the effective work of the meeting.

Prof. E. O. Excell, of Chicago, who needs no recommendation to the camp ground attendants, will again have charge of the singing. The chorus of several hundred singers will be an interesting feature of the meeting.

Rev. Sam Jones, who preaches to two million people annually, will make his third or fourth appearance at this camp this year.

Sunday, the twentieth instant, at 2 p. m., Sam Jones will preach his remarkable sermon to men only, in which he puts them on notice that he will vote them at the close of the sermon, and that they will endorse every word he says from beginning to end.

It is expected that thousands of men only will assemble in the larger auditorium to hear Sam Jones, while a meeting for women will be held in the camp ground hall.

The services throughout are of an unusually interesting character and the meeting bids fair to be a memorable one in the history of the grounds.
